Arvon Four-Button Sack Suit

In design and shapeliness this is the dresser's idea of snappy apparel that gives a man an individual appearance. Men with an appreciative eye for high-class tailored clothes will discern these same qualities in the ARVON. In other words of the man who knows what custom tailored clothes are like—at their best. Made by CROUSE & BRANDEGEE, Manufacturing Tailors, Utica, N. Y., it is metropolitan in style, and being close fitting it appeals particularly to the man of slim build and those wishing a snug fitting garment. Made in a variety of fancy worsteds and chevrons. The graceful curve-in at the waist and the concave shoulders that cling to the form will please every careful dresser.

It Meets the Taste

PRESIDENT BREAKS CAMP

After a Short Time At the Fort
He Will Be Where the Geysers Spout.

HAS NOT SHOT AT LIONS

Had Chance to Bag Big Game,
but Declined to Do So—Is
In Best of Health.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 14.—President Roosevelt broke camp yesterday and is working his way toward Fort Yellowstone. He is expected to arrive at Yanceys tonight or tomorrow morning. He will remain there one day and will then start for Norris where the geysers are. There is a good deal of snow between the fort and Norris, and the engineer corps is at work opening the road.

Word received from the president today was to the effect that he was in the best of health and thoroughly enjoying his outing. In addition to horseback riding, he takes long walks over mountain trails. Notwithstanding reports to the contrary the president has not fired a shot at a mountain lion, and has no intention of doing so. It is estimated that there are 500 of these animals in the park and they are killing large quantities of deer and elk. Determined effort is being made to exterminate them, and Buffalo Jones, game warden of the park, together with his scouts, is slaying them on every possible occasion. Jones has offered to round up a lion or two for the president to shoot at, but the latter declined to do so.

The weather continues to be all that could be desired, and the members of the party who are living on the train at Cinnabar are having a good time fishing and riding through the country.

Butte, April 14.—A special to the Miner from Helena says: News of President Roosevelt in the national park is a very rare article. Some of the most enterprising newspapers in the country have been endeavoring by all sorts of strategy to get a bird's eye view of the chief executive.

The president is having an experience that falls to few. He does not permit himself to carry a gun. Since he has been in the park he has seen two mountain lions killed by scouts but the most novel of all his experiences was when he witnessed the startling spectacle of an eagle in mortal combat with a yearling elk. In this instance the president saw an eagle plunge his talons into the flesh of the weakening elk and kill the young animal and then start to feast on him. The president who is a member of the Order of Elks, could not bear such a spectacle, and scouts forced the eagle to leave his prey.

No Development In Investigation

Washington, April 14.—Investigation of the affairs at the postoffice department resulted in no complete developments today. Inspector Farnes, former director general of the post of Cuba, and one of Bristow's chief assistants in conducting the inquiry, was engaged today in the investigation of a free delivery bureau. Inspector Thorpe of New York believed to be looking into the charges affecting a readjustment of the salaries and allowances for post clerks in New York city. Payne announced tonight that there would be no charges pending the close of investigation.

Used Too Much Good Powder

New York, April 14.—Much havoc was caused in the Bronx yesterday by a blast fired in the work of cutting One Hundred and Seventy-second street through from Third avenue to Fulton avenue. The cutting is through an immense wall of solid rock. The blast broke the windows of more than a score of houses in Third avenue and partly wrecked one house, and the shock knocked down several children who were on their way to school, injuring some of them slightly.

A fragment of rock weighing half a ton was sent crashing through a frame house, tearing through four partitions and the front and rear walls and de-moliating a piano and several articles of furniture.

Fragments of rock broke the window of a dentist's operating room, covering the dentist and a patient with broken glass. Ten blocks from the blast, a window, against which a baby was pressing its face, was broken, but the baby escaped harm. A woman, ill from heart disease, in the same house, swooned and needed the attention of a physician for hours afterwards. The foreman in charge of the operation was arrested and arraigned in court, but the magistrate paroled him to appear today.

Rome Burning Once More

Rome, N. Y., April 14.—Fire which started in the Washington Opera house at 3 o'clock this morning destroyed that structure quickly and spread to the Arlington hotel. Nearly every room in the hotel was occupied and some of the guests had narrow escapes. So far as can be ascertained no lives were lost. In the Arlington hotel building are many business offices and stores, and at this hour it looks as if the entire structure is doomed.

Although the opera house is a mass of flames, the fire is now devoting their energies to the hotel building. It is estimated that the total loss will reach $175,000.

Hard Work Saved Levee

New Orleans, April 14.—Prompt and effective work today arrested threatened destruction of the Wattedou levee, about 70 miles above the city on the east bank of the river. A crawfish hole developed near its base and widened to a diameter of 20 inches.

For a time there was much apprehension that the levee would go, but after a day of hard work the run around was completed and the source of trouble made reasonably secure.

HONORS EASILY SATISFIED

New York, April 14.—Congressmen Villuendas and Garzonilla fought a duel with swords on Sunday, says the Tribune's Havana correspondent. Senator Garzonilla was wounded slightly in the right wrist. Four congressmen acted as seconds. The duel was the result of words exchanged in the lower house on April 6.

Villuendas called Garzonilla a little, rude, ugly person and a clown. Garzonilla prepared a letter for signature by Villuendas, in which the latter retracted his epithets, but Villuendas refused to sign it and said he would give satisfaction on the field of honor.

No Policy Adopted,

New Orleans, April 14.—The first day's session of the annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers ended without any definite indication as to whether the organization will adopt as its own policy an aggressive hostility to union labor methods, as outlined by President D. H. Parry in his annual report.

FOR UNSKILLED LABOR.

Washington, April 14.—The organization of the International Building Laborers' union, made up of unskilled laborers in building trades throughout the United States and Canada, was perfected today at a convention of the representatives of the laborers being held here. A constitution for the union was adopted.

TORNADO IN ALABAMA.

IMITATING JAMES BOYS

Two Robbers Hold Up Postoffice and Publicly Fire Upon the Village Citizens.

TERRORIZED THE INHABITANTS

Desperados Thought to Be Escaped
Convicts From British Columbia—Cannot Trace.

Whatcom, Wash., April 14.—Two masked robbers held up the village of Ferndale in true Missouri style last night, shot at every man who appeared on the streets, robbed the postoffice of $150, and succeeded in making their escape without the slightest clue to their identity.

The outlaws made their first appearance in the postoffice, where they ordered the postmaster to deliver to them the contents of his till. The postmaster refused, and while one with two revolvers in his hands kept him covered, the other emptied the contents of the till into a sack. Nothing but money was taken. Four men who were in the office when the robbers came were compelled to leave, the robbers firing shots over their heads as they took their departure.

Knowing nothing of what was going on, William Keener started to enter the office while the robbers were at their work. Two shots which barely missed him caused him to beat a hasty retreat.

As the robbers departed they shot into a saloon where five men were looking through a window into the street. The bullet flattened out against an iron strip across it without doing any damage.

The officers returned from Ferndale today without being able to get any trace of the robbers or a description which tallied from any two citizens.

They are believed by the authorities here to be two convicts who last week broke out of the provincial penitentiary at New Westminster, B. C., and who immediately made their way to Vancouver, where they provided themselves with firearms by burglarizing a hardware store.

The leader was incarcerated at New Westminster under the name of Jones, but he has served two terms in the penitentiary of this state under the name of King. His companion's name is Clark. Tonight posses are guarding all the highways leading from the vicinity of the outrage.

Doctor Lorenz Is Here Again

New York, April 14.—Dr. A. Lorenz, who during his last visit to the United States performed a number of bloodless surgical operations, arrived here today on the steamer Lahn from Genoa. He goes to Chicago to remove the cast from the hip of Lolita Armour, daughter of J. Ogden Armour, who he operated upon when he made his visit to America.

SOME RULES FOR DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS

New York, April 14.—Letters from ex-President Cleveland, W. J. Bryan, and ex-Senator David B. Hill, were read at last night's Thomas Jefferson dinner of the Tammany hall general committee of the Thirty-fifth assembly district. Mr. Cleveland wrote:

"In the crowding incidents and constantly changing conditions of our people's life, new issues and new subjects of political thought and action must frequently present themselves to the test of democratic judgment. The only sincere way for our party to deal with these is, first, to discover their character and their tendencies for good or evil, and thereupon to treat them in such a manner as will recognize constitutional restrictions and the necessity of safe conservatism, while at the same time we keep in sight, as our unfailing guide, and the supreme object of our political endeavor, a conscientious regard for the best and highest interest of the people of the land without favoritism or unjust discrimination."

"Mr. Bryan in his letter, said: 'I trust that the banquet will inspire these present to imitate Jefferson in a fight for the application of democratic principles of government without compromise with plutocracy or concessions to time servers and patronage seekers.'"

In his letter, written from Wolferts Roost, ex-Senator Hill announced that "a united democracy can win the great contest in 1904 and route the forces of plutocracy."

Edward M. Shepard, referring to the national administration, spoke of President Roosevelt practically as a fire brand who is teaching the nation to desire war.

RETURN TO THEIR WORK

Building Trades Strikers In Portland
Now At Peace With the Employers.

PAINTERS ARE OUT ALONE

Existing Scale to Prevail and Due Notice Will Be Given for Future Demands.

Portland April 14.—The strike of brickhandlers and mortar men is over, at least temporarily. The Building Trades council appointed a committee last night to confer with George Langford, the mason work contractor, and conduct an investigation along lines suggested by that gentleman in a letter read before the council. In conformity with this action the committee appointed last night and a committee from the Portland Laborers' Protective union No. 5724 met with Mr. Langford late this forenoon and, after considering all phases the strike, so far as the mortar, brick and cement men is concerned, was declared off for the present at least and the men are to return to work at the existing scale.

According to an agreement between the masons and master builders, the former, in making new demands, are to give the builders at least 30 days' notice. Mr. Langford showed the committee that the first communication that he had received announcing that an increase in wages would be demanded April 1, was received March 4 from
